Hailey Hall School

Privacy Notice - How we use pupil information

At Hailey Hall School we collect both Personal and Sensitive (Special) Pupil information. We are committed to the protection of all data for which we hold responsibility. The school acts as a Data Controller and as such is registered with the ICO and complies with the Principles of the Data Protection Act 1998.

<https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-data-protection/data-protection-principles/>. It also takes into account expected provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation which is new legislation came into force on 25 May 2018.

The handling of Personal and Special data is in accordance with Data Protection Principles and as per GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) Article 5 all personal data shall be:

1. Processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner.
2. Collected for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes.
3. Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary.
4. Accurate, and where necessary, kept up to date.
5. Retained only for as long as necessary.
6. Appropriate technical and organisational measures shall be taken against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data, and against accidental loss or destruction, or damage to, personal data.
7. Personal Data shall be processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects under the Data Protection Act 1998.
8. Personal data shall not be transferred to a country or territory outside of the European Economic Area unless the country or territory ensures an adequate level of protection for the rights and freedoms of data in relation to the processing of personal data.

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and process pupil information as per Article 6 of the GDPR which covers lawful processing .

We collect and process sensitive (special) pupil information as per Article 9 of the GDPR.

Collecting pupil information

The intention to share data relating to individuals to an organisation outside of our school shall be clearly defined within notifications and details of the basis for sharing given. Data will be shared with external parties in circumstances where it is a legal requirement to provide such information.

Any proposed change to the processing of individual's data shall first be notified to them.

Storing pupil data

- We hold staff data in the form of paper staff records, in our SIMS database and these records are held for no longer than necessary . We do have an audit of all our data processing activities on our shared drive.
- The school recognises that the secure disposal of redundant data is an integral element to compliance with legal requirements and an area of increased risk.
- All data held in any form of media (paper, tape, electronic) shall only be passed to a disposal partner with demonstrable competence in providing secure disposal services. The company we use is called
Resolve it : <https://www.resolve recycling.co.uk/>

We have a copy of the companies privacy policy and know how to contact their Data Protection Officer if necessary. This company offers three types of data disposal and we have opted to use the “Secure Data Wiping Service”.

- All data shall be destroyed or eradicated to agreed levels meeting recognised national standards, with confirmation at completion of the disposal process.

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Schools that the pupil's attend after leaving us
- Our local authority and related agencies
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Alternative Provision providers
- Mertitec (for CPOMS software)

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

We share information with alternative provision providers such as SEN data, student name and contact details so that the providers have a clear idea of student needs and that the providers can contact parents/carers if needed.

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Youth support services

Pupils aged 13+

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

A parent or guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once he/she reaches the age 16.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, parents and pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, or be given access to your child's educational record, contact Lyn Gregory, Operations Manager, lgregory@haileyhall.herts.sch.uk, or our Strategy Manager, Julie Kinchlea, jkinchlea@haileyhall.herts.sch.uk.

Please note that we will answer requests for personal data within 30 days of receipt of the request form.

You also have the right to:

- object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- in certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed; and
- claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

The school will not reveal the following information in response to Subject Access Requests:

- Information that might cause serious harm to the physical or mental health of the pupil or another individual.
- Information that would reveal that the child is at abuse of risk, where disclosure of that information would not be in the child's best interest.
- Information contained in adoption and parental order records.
- Certain information given to a court in proceedings concerning the child.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we request that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at

<https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>
